PRESIDENTS CORNER

Montana Unit Newsletter (061) March 2017

Multiple reports from my confidential sources tell me that this has been one of the coldest, snow filled winters in recent memory. There is over 3 feet of snow in my driveway and it gets deeper with each succeeding snowfall. I will take this opportunity to relate a recent conversation with a Texan the other day when I mentioned we have a home in Montana. He said he has a son who lives MT and his son told him he was not homesick because Montana is just like Texas; except it is prettier in the summer and colder in the winter. I smiled broadly and said he is so correct. Most of you do not know that we own a villa in an Airstream park in Hillsboro, TX known as North Texas Airstream Community. In December I was elected to the Board of Directors that manages the park. I am serving as the Treasurer and have taken on the task of reorganizing the books and records of the club. I guess you could say I traded in my snow shovel for a shovel of a different kind.

Our planning for the first Spring Rally is maturing. The permit for our use of Itch-Kep-Pe Park in Columbus, MT from April 27 to 30 has been approved. The park is city owned and I have been advised that it is not kept clear of snow. However I am an optimist and still have high hopes that all the snow fall this winter will be gone in time for us to have a successful gathering.

A weather dependent decision will be made in mid April and all members will be advised.

From June 1-4 (note the date change) we will be gathering in Ennis, MT at a full hook-up RV park for our official opening of Montana's RV season. I envision a chuck wagon dinner on the banks of the Madison River for one evening. I am also considering a day in Virginia City exploring that historic city, ending with an evening show at the Brewery Follies, which I am told is a must see event.

The Billings luncheon went well with 7 members attending. Thanks to Avis & Toby for hosting the event which was concluded with some word games and a recounting of early WBCCI history and traditions. While Avis didn't mention it I'll bet there were some stories about their trip to Africa. Stay well and warm and we will see you at the spring rally.
